About Winsel

Winsel has been crafted to ride out the storm of mediocrity and to outlive the merits of inconsequence, if necessary for years, if necessary alone. With Winsel, you shall go on till the end. You shall write on the beaches. You shall write on the landing grounds. You shall write with growing confidence and growing strength in print or on the air.

About TINTABUDI

Tintabudi is a modest bookshop with bold ambition. A union of two words, 'tinta' means ink, a metaphor to the written words, while 'budi', from the Sanskrit 'buddhi', means wisdom, understanding, or intellect. A book, the ink-bound pages, as a conduit of wisdom; this belief underpins our establishment.

Here at Tintabudi, we honour the individual's lifelong pursuit of knowledge. Our thoughtfully curated titles, on philosophy, history and literature, among others, speaks of this. In with the old, in with the new, we furnish both used and brand new books. Beyond the bookshelves, we proffer a gathering place for minds thirsty for discourse; in service to the pursuit, Tintabudi is where company is sweeter than solitude.
